        Certainly! Preparing a menu for a South Indian Hyderabad wedding requires a focus on traditional flavors and rich, aromatic dishes. Below is a formal menu with two items each from the categories of appetizers, main courses, rice dishes, roti/dal dishes, and sweets.

Hyderabad Wedding Menu

Appetizers
- Samosas: Deep-fried, golden-brown samosas filled with a spiced mixture of potatoes, peas, herbs, and sometimes meat.
- Gulab Jamun (Pineapple Gulab Jamun): Soothing, syrupy gulab jamun made with pineapple chunks for a sweet twist.

Main Courses
- Hyderabadi Mutton Biryani: An aromatic blend of mutton, basmati rice, and an array of spices, slow-cooked together in a dum pukht style.
- Kheema Curry: Lamb meatballs cooked in a rich, creamy tomato gravy with fenugreek leaves and special Hyderabad spices.

Rice Dishes
- Jeera Rice (Biryani Rice): Flavored with cumin seeds, green cardamoms, cloves, and bay leaves for a fragrant side dish.
- Yogurt Rice: Served with minted yogurt and garnished with nuts and fried onions, adding a cool and refreshing flavor to the meal.

Roti/Dal Dishes
- Seviyan: A delightful, fluffy bread served with a rich ghee butter and often sprinkled with roasted nuts, served to break the fast before meals.
- Dal Chawal: Traditional lentil gravy made with a blend of dal and spices, served alongside boiled rice for a hearty and nutritious meal.

Sweets
- Peda Modak: Sweet dumplings filled with sweet jaggery and wrapped in a soft, chewy outer shell.
- Shalgunnas: A dessert consisting of layered wheat flour dough baked in clarified butter and drizzled with honey syrup.

Each dish on this menu is selected to represent the best of the diverse culinary heritage of Hyderabad, ensuring a memorable dining experience for your wedding guests. Please adjust the portion sizes and specific ingredients based on your guest count and preferences. It's also recommended to consult with a local caterer or cook who specializes in Hyderabad cuisine to ensure authenticity and perfection.
